

Exams

Goethe exams

We offer the Goethe exams at levels A1-C2 twice a year. Information on dates, costs, registration deadlines, etc. can be found at vhs-lingen.de. Here you can register directly for the exams.

German test for immigrants – Deutschtest für Zuwanderer (DTZ)

The DTZ exam is the final exam after 600 hours of the integration course (modules 1-6) and certifies the level B1. The VHS Lingen offers additional dates for external participants. Please make an appointment for personal registration at vhs-lingen.de. Please bring your authorization for access to the integration course area, your ID card and the examination fee in cash to the agreed appointment.

Test „Living in Germany“ – Test „Leben in Deutschland“

The test "Living in Germany" (Politiktest) forms the conclusion of the orientation module in the integration course. The VHS Lingen offers additional appointments for external participants. Please make an appointment for personal registration at vhs-lingen.de. Please bring your authorization for access to the integration course area, your ID card and the examination fee in cash to the agreed appointment.

German test for profession - Deutschtest für den Beruf (DTB)

The DTB examination marks the end of the professional language course and certifies knowledge at the targeted level.

Citizenship test – Einbürgerungstest

To prove knowledge of the legal and social system and living conditions in Germany, a naturalization test can be taken at the VHS Lingen. This proof is required for naturalization in Germany. Please make an appointment for personal registration at vhs-lingen.de. Please bring your ID and the test fee in cash to the agreed appointment.
